TERMS OF SERVICE

EFFECTIVE JUNE 13, 2026

These terms are a contract between you and Liftly. By creating an account or using the Service, you agree to them. Please read the health and AI disclaimers carefully — strength training carries real risk.

01 ACCEPTANCE OF THESE TERMS

By accessing or using Liftly (the “Service”), you agree to these Terms of Service and to our Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, do not use the Service. If you use the Service on behalf of an organization (for example as a coach), you represent that you have authority to bind that organization to these terms.

02 WHO CAN USE LIFTLY

You must be at least 16 years old, and ideally an adult, to use the Service, and you must be able to form a binding contract. Because the Service involves heavy strength training, you confirm that you are physically able to exercise and have no medical condition that makes training unsafe. If you’re unsure, consult a physician before starting.

03 HEALTH & SAFETY DISCLAIMER — READ THIS

Liftly is a fitness and information tool, not a medical service. It does not provide medical, physical-therapy, or professional nutritional advice, diagnosis, or treatment, and nothing in the Service should be treated as such.

- You train at your own risk. Powerlifting and resistance training carry an inherent risk of serious injury or death. You assume that risk and are solely responsible for your training decisions.
- Programs and macros are suggestions. Loads, RPE targets, taper plans, calories, and meal plans are estimates generated from the data you provide. Use your own judgment, listen to your body, and stop if something hurts.
- Get sharp pain checked. The Service is not a substitute for a doctor or physical therapist. Seek professional care for injuries, pain, or any health concern before continuing.
- Consult a professional before starting any new training or nutrition program, especially if you’re pregnant, have a medical condition, or take medication.

04 ABOUT THE AI

Core features are powered by artificial intelligence. AI can produce output that is inaccurate, incomplete, or inappropriate for your situation — including incorrect RPE estimates, form feedback, or nutrition figures. AI output is for general information only and is not professional advice. Always apply your own judgment, and don’t rely on the Service for decisions that could affect your health or safety without independent verification.

05 YOUR ACCOUNT

You're responsible for the accuracy of the information you provide and for keeping your account credentials secure. You're responsible for all activity under your account. Notify us promptly at lifllysupport@gmail.com if you suspect unauthorized use.

06 ACCEPTABLE USE

You agree not to:

- Use the Service for any unlawful purpose or in violation of these terms.
- Upload content you don't have the right to share, or media containing people who haven't consented to being filmed and analyzed.
- Attempt to reverse-engineer, scrape, overload, or interfere with the Service or its underlying systems and AI providers.
- Resell, sublicense, or build a competing product from the Service or its output without our permission.
- Misrepresent your identity or impersonate others, including coaches or clients.

07 YOUR CONTENT

You keep ownership of the content you submit — your training logs, videos, messages, and other data ("Your Content"). You grant Liftly a limited, non-exclusive license to host, process, and display Your Content solely to operate and improve the Service for you, including sending it to our AI and infrastructure providers as described in the Privacy Policy. You are responsible for Your Content and confirm you have the rights necessary to submit it.

08 COACHES AND CLIENTS

If you use Liftly as a coach, you may view and act on data your clients share with you, and you're responsible for using that data appropriately, lawfully, and only to coach them. AI may draft adjustments, but a coach reviews and approves changes that require sign-off — you remain responsible for the advice you give. If you're an athlete working with a coach, you acknowledge your coach can access your training data.

09 OUR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The Service — including its software, design, text, logos, and the "Liftly" name — is owned by us and protected by intellectual-property laws. We grant you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to use the Service for your personal (or, for coaches, internal coaching) use. We reserve all rights not expressly granted.

10 PLANS AND PAYMENT

Liftly may offer free and paid features. If you purchase a paid plan, you agree to the prices and billing terms presented at checkout. Fees are charged in advance and, except where required by law, are non-refundable. We may change pricing prospectively with notice; changes won't affect a billing period you've already paid for.

11 THIRD-PARTY SERVICES

The Service relies on third parties (such as our AI, hosting, and authentication providers) and may link to third-party sites. We aren't responsible for third-party services or content, and your use of them may be governed by their own terms.

12 SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

You may stop using the Service and delete your account at any time. We may suspend or terminate your access if you violate these terms, create risk or legal exposure, or if we discontinue the Service. Sections that by their nature should survive termination — including disclaimers, limitation of liability, and indemnification — will continue to apply.

13 DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES

The Service is provided “as is” and “as available,” without warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, including merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, accuracy, and non-infringement. We do not warrant that the Service will be uninterrupted, error-free, or that AI output will be accurate or suitable for you. Some jurisdictions don’t allow certain disclaimers, so some of the above may not apply to you.

14 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Liftly and its operators will not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, or for any personal injury, loss of data, or lost profits, arising out of or relating to your use of (or inability to use) the Service — including any reliance on AI output or training/nutrition suggestions. Our total liability for any claim relating to the Service will not exceed the greater of the amount you paid us in the 12 months before the claim or USD $100. Some jurisdictions don’t allow these limits, so they may not fully apply to you.

15 INDEMNIFICATION

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless Liftly and its operators from claims, damages, and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising from Your Content, your use of the Service, or your violation of these terms or any law or third-party right.

16 GOVERNING LAW & DISPUTES

These terms are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which Liftly’s operator is established, without regard to conflict-of-laws rules. You agree to resolve disputes in the courts of that jurisdiction, unless mandatory local law gives you the right to bring a claim elsewhere. Before filing anything, please contact us — most issues can be resolved by email.

17 CHANGES TO THESE TERMS

We may update these terms as the Service evolves. When changes are material, we’ll update the “Effective” date above and, where appropriate, notify you in the app or by email. Continuing to use the Service after changes take effect means you accept the revised terms.
